

NEW CITY

A Gathered Service of Worship

WELCOME TO NEW CITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We're delighted that you've joined us this morning for our gathered service of worship. Our community is a collection of people of all ages and professions from a wide variety of spiritual and social backgrounds. We embrace Jesus' claims to be true and transformational and the central message of the Bible to be the good news, or "gospel," of a God who created us for himself and desires us to live fully as we enjoy relationship with him and each other.

The Bible's radical message of grace centers on Jesus and creates a new city comprised of renewed individuals living not for themselves but for the God who redeems. For this reason, New City Presbyterian Church exists to be a community rooted in truth, real in conversation and committed to renewing our lives and our city.

As the Lead Pastor at New City, it is my privilege to extend to you an invitation to come be part of the New City Church community and to be astonished, together with us, by the splendor and grace of God.

RYAN MCVICAR

*To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest; to all who mourn and long for comfort; to all who struggle and desire victory; to all who sin and need a savior;
to all who are strangers and want fellowship; to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
to whoever will come - this church opens wide her doors and offers you welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Order for the Public Worship of God

September 17, 2017

WORD ON WORSHIP

We celebrate the Lord's Supper every week. This sacrament is also called "communion." This meal teaches us that "we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread" (I Corinthians 10:17). During communion, we not only take time to look back and reflect on our crucified Savior's love, but we also look ahead and anticipate a coming Savior's glory. This frees us from despair as we face hostility, adversity, and heartache. Participating in the Lord's Supper should awaken in us a longing for another feast — the ultimate feast, when our Lord will make all things new. He will swallow up death forever. He will wipe away tears from all faces and we will forever rejoice in our Lord's salvation. Why not prepare your heart for worship by meditating on Isaiah 25:6-9 which speaks of this consummation?

SILENT REFLECTION

On this mountain the Lord Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines. 7 On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; 8 he will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove his people's disgrace from all the earth. The Lord has spoken. 9 In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the Lord, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation." | Isaiah 25:6–9

"Jesus did not suffer martyrdom. . . . Jesus went to his death knowing that it was his Father's will that he face death completely alone as the sacrificial, wrath averting Passover Lamb. As his death was unique, so also his anguish; and our best response to it is hushed worship." | D. A. Carson

"In the total expanse of human life there is not a single square inch of which the Christ, who alone is sovereign, does not declare, 'That is mine!'" | Abraham Kuyper

CALL TO WORSHIP

HYMN OF PRAISE

THIS IS MY FATHER'S WORLD

Babcock, 1901

ALL This is my Father's world, And to my listening ears
All nature sings, and round me rings, The music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
His hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world, The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white, Declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world:
He shines in all that's fair;
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass;
He speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world. O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet.
This is my Father's world: the battle is not done:
Jesus Who died shall be satisfied,
And earth and Heav'n be one.

This is my Father's world. I walk a desert lone.
In a bush ablaze to my wondering gaze God makes His glory known.
This is my Father's world,
A wanderer I may roam
Whate'er my lot, it matters not,
My heart is still at home.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION (concluded with the Lord's prayer)

ALL Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HYMN OF JOY

10,000 REASONS (TO BLESS THE LORD)

Matt Redman, 2011

ALL

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning;
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass,
And whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul,
Worship His holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul.
I'll worship Your holy name

You're rich in love, and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great, and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

And on that day when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still my soul will sing Your praise unending:
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

READING FROM REVELATION

REVELATION 7:9-12

READER

"After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying: "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!"

PASTORAL PRAYER

BRINGING OF GOD'S TITHES AND OUR OFFERINGS

LIVING WATERS
K. Getty & E. Cash, 2016

ALL

Are you thirsty, Are you empty
Come and drink these living waters
Tired and broken, Peace unspoken
Rest beside these living waters

Christ is calling, Find refreshing
At the cross of living waters
Lay your life down, All the old gone
Rise up in these living waters

There's a river that flows with mercy and love
Bringing joy to the city of our God
There our hope is secure, do not fear anymore
Praise the Lord of living waters

Spirit moving, Mercy washing
Healing in these living waters
Lead your children to the shore line
Life is in these living waters

Are you thirsty, Are you empty
Come and drink these living waters
Love, forgiveness, Vast and boundless
Christ, He is our living waters

DISMISSAL OF CHILDREN

Three year olds through 3rd graders are welcome to attend Kids' Bible Time classes during the sermon. You may help your children find their seats when they return to the service during communion.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

THE PROCLAMATION OF GOD'S WORD

EPHESIANS 1:7-10 (ESV)

READER

⁷ In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, ⁸ which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight ⁹ making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ ¹⁰ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

MINISTER

All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like the flowers of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades,

ALL

But the Word of our God stands forever.

TITLE: Redemption, Revelation and Renovation

(notes and thoughts)

Sermon Discussion Questions

1. What Old Testament connections is Paul making as he discusses redemption, blood and the new creation that is coming?
2. Discuss the significance of God knowing everything about you (“all wisdom and insight”) before he lavished you with the riches of his salvation.
3. Picture a world where “all things” are perfectly brought together and perfectly brought under submission to the reign of king Jesus. Why is this such good news?! How should this be expressed in and through the church.
4. Is there an area of your life where you are not living in joyful submission to Jesus? Is there a dividing wall between you and another person that needs to be broken down?

HYMN OF RESPONSE

BEFORE THE THRONE OF GOD ABOVE

Bancroft, 1863 & Cook, 1997

ALL

Before the throne of God above, I have a strong and perfect plea
A great high Priest whose name is love, Who ever lives and pleads for me
My name is graven on His hands,
My name is written on His Heart
I know that while in heav'n He stands.
No tongue can bid me thence depart
No tongue can bid me thence depart

When Satan tempts me to despair, And tells me of the guilt within Upward I look and see Him there, Who made an end to all my sin
Because the sinless Savior died, my sinful soul is counted free
For God, the Just,
Is satisfied To look on Him and pardon me
To look on Him and pardon me

Behold Him there the risen Lamb, My perfect spotless righteousness
The great unchangeable I AM, The King of glory and of grace
One with Himself I cannot die, My soul is purchased by His blood
My life is hid with Christ on high, With Christ my Savior and my God
With Christ my Savior and my God

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

ALL

God our heavenly Father, how comforting to know that You declare sinners like us completely forgiven, totally accepted and profoundly loved through faith in Jesus Christ alone. Forgive us for seeking refuge and security in other things and people rather than in You. Pardon us for living in the bondage of sin's dominion rather than in the security of Your love. Deliver us from our unbelief of Your promises, our unwillingness to forgive others, and our pride of place, face, race, and grace. For we pray in the strong name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

ROMANS 8:31-34

MINISTER

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him! For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

ALL

Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

Communion, also known as the Lord's Supper, has always been a common, shared, joyous family meal. This meal is for those who have placed their faith in Jesus Christ; for those Baptized Christians who trust in His once-for-all sacrificial death upon the cross for their salvation. When we celebrate this feast we commune with the risen Lord Jesus who stands as our host to offer spiritual nourishment, renewal and life. We also commune with one another, participating together in the reconciling grace of God.

We warmly welcome to the table all who trust in Jesus and who have publicly professed their faith as members of a Christian congregation. At New City, we ask our children not to take communion until they have met with the elders to share of their faith in Christ, although all children are invited to come forward to receive a word of encouragement. If you are not a Christian, we encourage you to spend this time reflecting on the prayers printed on the following page in the hopes that a relationship with Jesus and membership in His Church may be considered.

We will be coming forward to participate in Communion. Clear cups (located on the perimeter of the tray) contain grape juice. Red cups (interior of tray) contain wine. Gluten-free bread is also available at the table if it is your preference.

Jesus is truly and spiritually present and stands ready to feed you. Come hungry. Come thirsty. Come ready to be filled.

APOSTLES' CREED

ALL

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION AND BREAKING OF THE BREAD
INDIVIDUAL PRAYERS YOU CAN PRAY DURING COMMUNION

Prayer for Those Searching for the Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Prayer of Humble Access

I do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in my own goodness, but only in your righteousness credited to me. I am not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose manner is always to show mercy. Grant me, therefore, O Lord, the grace to commune now with Christ by faith, that I may evermore live in him and he in me. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN

THE BLOOD OF JESUS
Czechowicz & Hendershot, 2013

ALL

What fountain's unrelenting stream Is mighty as a flood?
With force and care it ever cleans 'Tis Jesus' precious blood

What river carries off my sins?
What balm can heal my wounds?
There is no tide or medicine But Jesus' blood alone

All the guilty are forgiven
All the captives are made clean and then set free
Praise the Lord of power and mercy
The blood of Jesus, shed for me

What treasure,
Land or salary Could pay the debt I owe?
The only valid currency Is Jesus' blood that flows

Who pleads for me with His own blood And then my soul renews?
He is my advocate and judge And served my sentence, too

What theme shall now my soul employ In song before my God?
A melody of love and joy And thanks for Jesus' blood

COMMUNION HYMN

O THE LOVE OF MY REDEEMER

Josh Caterer, 2007

ALL

Highest heights or darkest deep, Be there pain or poverty
There is nothing that can keep, My Redeemer's love from me

All alone though I may feel, All the world my enemy
Still there's no one that can steal My Redeemer's love from me

O the love of my Redeemer
Never failing, come what may
He has purchased my forgiveness
And has washed my sins away

Although burdened by the weight, Of great trial or tragedy
None of these can separate, My Redeemer's love from me (chorus)

Though the earth's foundations shake, Driving wind or raging sea
Neither death nor life can take, My Redeemer's love from me (chorus)

THE BENEDICTION & THE CHILDREN'S GATHERING

Through this world's few passing days
And through all eternity
I will never cease to praise
My Redeemer's love for me (chorus)

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Isn't it exciting to name something or someone? Names have meaning. Perhaps this is why we instinctively ask, "Do you have names picked out yet" when we first hear the news of a friend or loved one who is expecting a baby. It is also why you had better not dare change the name of a little girl's princess doll or teddy bear! We can only imagine the task entrusted to Adam and Eve to name the animals. Surely they experienced the same struggles that we often face: "Does this name really fit?" "Will it stand the test of time?" "Is it true to the identity of the person or thing being named?" Yes, names are important, but the comforting reality about names, from another perspective, is that they will not determine the ultimate strength, substance, or identity of the object being named.

So, as we conversed over the name of our church it became clear that there could be no other! In the end, we realized that we would not have to choose between a name that reflected either our region or our theology. Rather, our name reflects both our region and our theology.

Regionally, as you know, one of the better known nicknames for our great city and metro-area is the Renaissance City, which means City of Re-birth or Renewal. It's ironic that one of the most pressing questions being asked right now is how our city can ever be renewed.

Theologically, the central claim of the Bible is the good news that Jesus died upon the cross for sinners and secured the salvation of all who place their trust in him alone. The grand biblical vision and hope held out for God's children is their eternal residence in the new city of which we catch a glimpse in the last book of the bible:

"I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God." (Revelation 21)

It will not be jewels or gold that will make this new city so dazzling. Rather, the presence of God and the joy of forever residing in the city where he will be seen face to face is what will make this the greatest city ever known. For this reason, we are pleased to go by the name of New City.
