NEW CITY

A Gathered Service of Worship

WELCOME TO NEW CITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We're delighted that you've joined us this morning for our gathered service of worship. Our community is a collection of people of all ages and professions from a wide variety of spiritual and social backgrounds. We embrace Jesus' claims to be true and transformational and the central message of the Bible to be the good news, or "gospel," of a God who created us for himself and desires us to live fully as we enjoy relationship with him and each other.

The Bible's radical message of grace centers on Jesus and creates a new city comprised of renewed individuals living not for themselves but for the God who redeems. For this reason, New City Presbyterian Church exists to be a community rooted in truth, real in conversation and committed to renewing our lives and our city.

As the Lead Pastor at New City, it is my privilege to extend to you an invitation to come be part of the New City Church community and to be astonished, together with us, by the splendor and grace of God.

RYAN MCVICAR

*To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest; to all who mourn and long for comfort;
to all who struggle and desire victory; to all who sin and need a savior;
to all who are strangers and want fellowship;
to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
to whoever will come - this church opens wide her doors and offers you welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Order for the Public Worship of God

April 29, 2018

WORD ON WORSHIP

Words in Worship

Worship is much more than words, of course. And often worship features too many words. We may long for worship that breathes with silence and meditation or for instrumental music that transcends words. Still, worship depends on words. God's revelation to us is given not only in creation but also in words that communicate all we need to know about God, ourselves, and our salvation. Our communal worship is made possible because we have words to speak to each other, to call each other to worship, to speak common prayers, and to encourage each other in the faith. Perhaps the largest challenge for the language of worship is that one set of words—usually spoken or prepared by a single person—needs to somehow embrace, express, and elicit the worship of a whole group of people. From the perspective of a worshiper, public worship always involves using words that come from someone else. One skill for worshipers to hone is the skill of “learning to mean the words that someone else gives us,” whether those are the words of a songwriter or prayer leader. This skill requires a unique mix of humility (submitting ourselves to words given to us by the community of faith), grace (willingness to offer the benefit of the doubt when those words may not have been well chosen), and intention (to actually appropriate those words as our own). May the Lord use his Word, in today's words, to engage our minds, captivate our hearts, and move our spirit to true worship.

SILENT REFLECTION:

But you, O God whom I love and on whom I lean in weakness so that I may be strong, you are not the sun and the moon and the stars, for you created them. You are the life of souls, the life of lives. You live, O life of my soul, because you are life itself, immutable. | Augustine

If only we will take the courage to fix our gaze deliberately upon the stern countenance of grief, and enter unafraid into the darkest recesses of our trouble, we shall find the terror gone, because the Lord has been there before us, and, coming out again, has left the place transfigured, making of it by the grace of his resurrection a house of life, the very gate of heaven. | Geerhardus Vos

WELCOME & PREPARATION

PRELUDE

How Firm a Foundation
(Keith, 1787)

CALL TO WORSHIP

HYMN OF SURRENDER

Lord I Need You
(Maher, 2011)

ALL

Lord, I come, I confess
Bowing here I find my rest
Without You I fall apart
You're the One that guides my heart

Lord, I need You, Oh, I need You
Every hour I need You
My one defense, my righteousness
Oh God, how I need You

Where sin runs deep Your grace is more
Where grace is found is where You are
And where You are, Lord, I am free
Holiness is Christ in me

Teach my song to rise to You
When temptation comes my way
And when I cannot stand I'll fall on You
Jesus, You're my hope and stay

READING FROM THE PSALMS

Psalm 86:8-13

READER

<sup>8</sup> There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.

<sup>9</sup> All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name.

<sup>10</sup> For you are great and do wondrous things;
you alone are God.

READER

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth;
unite my heart to fear your name.

<sup>12</sup>I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.

<sup>13</sup>For great is your steadfast love toward me;
you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION 🍀

HYMN OF FAITH 🍀

Come Behold The Wondrous Mystery
(Boswell/Papa/Bleecker, 2012)

ALL

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
In the dawning of the King
He the theme of heaven's praises
Robed in frail humanity
In our longing in our darkness
Now the light of life has come
Look to Christ who condescended
Took on flesh to ransom us

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
He the perfect Son of Man
In His living in His suff'ring
Never trace nor stain of sin
See the true and better Adam
Come to save the hellbound man
Christ the great and sure fulfillment
Of the law in Him we stand

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
Christ the Lord upon the tree
In the stead of ruined sinners
Hangs the Lamb in victory
See the price of our redemption
See the Father's plan unfold
Bringing many sons to glory
Grace unmeasured love untold

ALL Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
Slain by death the God of life
But no grave could e'er restrain Him
Praise the Lord He is alive
What a foretaste of deliv'rance
How unwavering our hope
Christ in power resurrected
As we will be when He comes

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

ALL Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

GOD'S TITHES & OUR OFFERINGS

He Who Is Mighty
(Elliot/DeGraide, 2014)

Oh, the mercy our God has shown to those who sit in death's shadow
The sun on high pierced the night, born was the Cornerstone
Unto us a Son is given, unto us a Child is born

He who is mighty has done a great thing
Taken on flesh, conquered death's sting
Shattered the darkness and lifted our shame, Holy is His name

Oh, the freedom our Savior won; the yoke of sin has been broken
Once a slave, now by grace, no more condemnation
Unto us a Son is given, unto us a Child is born

Now my soul magnifies the Lord, I rejoice in the God Who saves
I will trust His unfailing love, I will sing His praises all my days

Three year olds through 3rd graders are welcome to attend Kids' Bible Time classes during the sermon. You may help your children find their seats when they return to the service during communion.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

<sup>1</sup> And Hannah prayed and said,
 "My heart exults in the Lord;
 my horn is exalted in the Lord.
 My mouth derides my enemies,
 because I rejoice in your salvation.
<sup>2</sup> "There is none holy like the Lord:
 for there is none besides you;
 there is no rock like our God.
<sup>3</sup> Talk no more so very proudly, let not arrogance come from your mouth;
 for the Lord is a God of knowledge,
 and by him actions are weighed.
<sup>4</sup> The bows of the mighty are broken,
 but the feeble bind on strength.
<sup>5</sup> Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry have ceased to hunger.
 The barren has borne seven,
 but she who has many children is forlorn.
<sup>6</sup> The Lord kills and brings to life;
 he brings down to Sheol and raises up.
<sup>7</sup> The Lord makes poor and makes rich;
 he brings low and he exalts.
<sup>8</sup> He raises up the poor from the dust;
 he lifts the needy from the ash heap
 to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor.
 For the pillars of the earth are the Lord's,
 and on them he has set the world.
<sup>9</sup> "He will guard the feet of his faithful ones, but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness,
 for not by might shall a man prevail.
<sup>10</sup> The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces;
 against them he will thunder in heaven.
 The Lord will judge the ends of the earth;
 he will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed."

TITLE: The God Who Takes Us Seriously (Hannah's Song)

(notes and thoughts)

Sermon Discussion Questions

1. Bible stories of barren women given children by God encourage us in our 'impossible' situations. Consider the relevance of this to you at this stage in your life with God.
2. Am I ever in danger of substituting 'human gimmicks' for dependence on 'the God of the impossible'?
3. Our despair may be another prelude to a mighty work of God. Seek illustrations of this from Scripture and experience.
4. Do you tend to live life wondering how God is a part of your story, or do you live with a sense that you are a part of his story? What is the difference in how this plays out?
5. Which is your greatest concern for yourself, your children or grandchildren or nieces or nephews, etc. - fame, prosperity, safety, or a life of spiritual maturity/godliness expressed in their desperate dependence on God?
6. Discuss the amazing way in which Jesus' world was turned upside down for you, and the amazing way your world has been turned upside down as a result of the gospel.

HYMN OF RESPONSE

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

(Hedge/Luther, 1527)

ALL A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing;
For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great, And, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

If we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,
Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing:
You ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
The Lord of Hosts, His Name, From age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled, Should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to triumph through us; (x2)

MEN
WOMEN A mighty fortress is our God,
His Kingdom is forever.

ALL If we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing.

CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

Communion, also known as the Lord's Supper, has always been a common, shared, joyous family meal. This meal is for those who have placed their faith in Jesus Christ; for those Baptized Christians who trust in His once-for-all sacrificial death upon the cross for their salvation. When we celebrate this feast, we commune with the risen Lord Jesus who stands as our host to offer spiritual nourishment, renewal and life. We also commune with one another, participating together in the reconciling grace of God.

We warmly welcome to the table all who trust in Jesus and who have publicly professed their faith as members of a Christian congregation. At New City, we ask our children not to take communion until they have met with the elders to share of their faith in Christ, although all children are invited to come forward to receive a word of encouragement. If you are not a Christian, we encourage you to spend this time reflecting on the prayers printed on the following page in the hopes that a relationship with Jesus and membership in His Church may be considered.

Jesus is truly and spiritually present and stands ready to feed you.
Come hungry. Come thirsty. Come ready to be filled.

*Today we celebrate with Belle Krieg who will come for communion at the Lord's Table for the first time.
Welcome to the table of joy!*

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Based on Ephesians 2:19-20

ALL We are fellow citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION OF SINS

ALL Merciful God,
you made us in your image,
with a mind to know you,
a heart to love you,
and a will to serve you.
But our knowledge is imperfect,
our love inconstant,
our obedience incomplete.
Day by day, we fail to grow into your likeness.
Show us our sin and lead us to a humble confession in this hour.

Please take a minute to confess your sins to the Lord in silence.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

1 Peter 2:24

MINISTER <sup>24</sup>He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION AND BREAKING OF BREAD

INDIVIDUAL PRAYERS YOU CAN PRAY DURING COMMUNION

Prayer for Those Searching for the Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Prayer of Humble Access

I do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in my own goodness, but only in your righteousness credited to me. I am not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose manner is always to show mercy. Grant me, therefore, O Lord, the grace to commune now with Christ by faith, that I may evermore live in him and he in me. Amen.

HYMN AT THE TABLE

Amen

(Gayle/Musso/Sherman, 2016)

ALL

Behold Jehovah seated on the throne
Abba Father the Well that overflows
The God who was and is and shall be forevermore
Holy is the Lord

Amen amen

Blessing and honor and glory and power Amen

Amen amen

Blessing and honor and glory and power Amen

Behold the Way the Truth and the Life
Perfect Savior the Blood that washed us white
The God who was and is and shall be forevermore
Holy is the Lord

Holiness has a name and it's Jesus

Victory has a name and it's Jesus

The Word has a name and it's Jesus

Redemption has a name and it's Jesus

Amen, amen.

HYMN OF PRAISE ●

Praise To The Lord
(Neander, 1680)

ALL Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near;
Praise Him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen how all your longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

THE BENEDICTION & THE CHILDREN'S GATHERING ●

ALL Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.
Let the Amen sound from His people again,
Gladly, for ever adore Him

INFO@NEWCITYPC.ORG

Isn't it exciting to name something or someone? Names have meaning. Perhaps this is why we instinctively ask, "Do you have names picked out yet" when we first hear the news of a friend or loved one who is expecting a baby. It is also why you had better not dare change the name of a little girl's princess doll or teddy bear! We can only imagine the task entrusted to Adam and Eve to name the animals. Surely they experienced the same struggles that we often face: "Does this name really fit?" "Will it stand the test of time?" "Is it true to the identity of the person or thing being named?" Yes, names are important, but the comforting reality about names, from another perspective, is that they will not determine the ultimate strength, substance, or identity of the object being named.

So, as we conversed over the name of our church it became clear that there could be no other! In the end, we realized that we would not have to choose between a name that reflected either our region or our theology. Rather, our name reflects both our region and our theology.

Regionally, as you know, one of the better known nicknames for our great city and metro-area is the Renaissance City, which means City of Re-birth or Renewal. It's ironic that one of the most pressing questions being asked right now is how our city can ever be renewed.

Theologically, the central claim of the Bible is the good news that Jesus died upon the cross for sinners and secured the salvation of all who place their trust in him alone. The grand biblical vision and hope held out for God's children is their eternal residence in the new city of which we catch a glimpse in the last book of the bible:

"I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God." (Revelation 21)

It will not be jewels or gold that will make this new city so dazzling. Rather, the presence of God and the joy of forever residing in the city where he will be seen face to face is what will make this the greatest city ever known. For this reason, we are pleased to go by the name of New City.
